Al Nuccion Retires From First Northern Bank

Al Nuccion retired from First Northern Bank as of April 29th, after seven years of service as Vice President/Manager of the Bank's two Vacaville branches. He worked in the banking industry for over 35 years. He leaves with many fond memories, describing First Northern as an outstanding, relationship-oriented bank. He looks at the time spent in Vacaville as the most enjoyable in his banking career, "by virtue of the wonderful people in the community."

While working in Vacaville, Al was a member of a number of civic organizations, serving on the boards of several of them, including the City of Vacaville Youth Round Table Committee, the Vacaville Performing Arts Council and the Solano Small Business Development Council. In his retirement, he plans to become involved with civic activities in Napa, where he lives.

Al owns two vintage British cars which he likes to tinker with, and he and his wife Joyce plan to do some traveling in them.

Carol Landry is Al's successor as Vice President/Manager of First Northern's Vacaville branches. She brings to the position over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry. Like Al, she is very involved in the community, serving as a member of the Vacaville Library Commission, the Budget Advisory Committee for the Vacaville Unified School District, and a board member of the Napa/Solano Girl Scouts.

First Northern Bank, an independent community bank headquartered in Solano County since 1910, serves Solano, Yolo, Sacramento, Placer and parts of El Dorado Counties. First Northern currently has 11 branches located in Dixon, Davis, West Sacramento, Fairfield, Vacaville, Winters, Woodland, Suisun City, Downtown Sacramento and most recently in Roseville.
