First Northern Bank Opens Full-Service Financial Center in Auburn

First Northern Bank (OTCBB:FNRN) opened the doors of its new Auburn Financial Center to customers on June 9, 2008. Located on the second floor at 2833 Bell Road (at Highway 49) in Rock Creek Plaza, the new Financial Center offers a full-service bank branch, specializing in business banking services, commercial loans, and wealth management services. First Northern also offers a full range of investment, insurance and brokerage services through Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. at the Auburn Financial Center.

Occupying more than 3,000 square feet of prime office space in North Auburn, the Financial Center features a relaxed, sit-down teller line and beautifully appointed private offices for each of its relationship managers and loan officers. Other non-traditional bank services offered at the Auburn Financial Center include Small Business Administration loans, asset management & trust services, owner-occupied residential construction and mortgage loans, and courier service for business deposit pickup. First Northern was also one of the first community banks in the region to offer Deposit Capture, an electronic deposit service that enables businesses to deposit their checks remotely, from their place of business, any time day or night, using a desktop scanner. Deposit Capture has been a real hit with First Northern Bank's business clients, as it saves them time and money by greatly reducing the number of trips to Bank.

First Northern Bank has been gradually expanding eastward from its headquarters in Dixon for decades. Most recently, First Northern opened its Roseville Branch in 2005 and its Folsom Financial Center in 2006. "The Bank has clients in Auburn, especially for investment services, and those customers wanted all of the Branch services that we offer," said Owen "John" Onsum, President and CEO. "We pride ourselves on providing top-notch service to small- and medium-sized businesses, in addition to individuals. Auburn's business mix is a perfect match for our expertise."

The Auburn Financial Center staff is lead by a team of financial experts from the local area, including Juanita Garcia-Holmes, Vice President/Business Services Officer; Dave Davis, Vice President/Raymond James Financial Advisor, and his Raymond James Registered Sales Assistant, Rhonda Hunt; and Craig Perkins, Vice President/Commercial Loan Manager. Stephanie Douglass rounds out the team, serving as Financial Services Manager, along with Jessie Kandola, Business Services Representative; and Alida Miller, Customer Service Representative.

Neighboring Rock Creek Plaza tenants include Starbucks, Togo's, AT&T Mobile, K-Mart and Rite Aid. Best Buy and BevMo are opening soon.
